Mr. CLEVELAND and his party have the opportunity of a lifetime. It will be remembered that last year, July 27th, Representative HOP-KINS, a Republican member of Congress from Pennsylvania, brought a resolution before the House to ascertain what steps had been taken to inquire into the affairs of the American Sugar Refining Company.

Mr. HOPKINS stated at the time that every Republican member of the Ways and Means Committee would vote to repeal the duty on refined sugar "if ever opportunity to vote on it were given by the majority of the committee." The Democratic majority in the committee, however, failed to afford the opportunity.

It is just a year since the Sugar Trust bought up all the competing refineries in Philadelphia at a cost of about $20,000,000. Within the year the price of refined sugar has been so advanced to the consumers that enough money has been made to pay the regular dividends, also to declare an additional dividend of 10 cents, and to carry over a cash surplus of $5,000,000.
This monopoly has further refused to supply information concerning its affairs to the Superintendent of the Census, and has managed to evade the laws regulating trusts. The Democratic party has no better opportunity to make a record for itself in the people's interests than by special legislation aimed directly to crush out this giant monopoly of the United States. Will they do it?

Every prophecy made by the opponents of the McKinley Bill has been fulfilled. They said it would raise prices, and prices of all the essentials and luxuries of life were never lower.
They said it would diminish our foreign trade, and our foreign trade has never been so great. They said it would hinder foreign nations from selling to us, and they never sold us so much as now. Settle the silver question and hold on to the McKinley Bill, and the country one year from now will be in a condition of active and progressive prosperity never before known. There will be a "boom" in everything and in all directions.

WILLIAM ROACH, the man who passed forged checks on Ironton merchants, got a sentence of ten years in the penitentiary.

BANKS COMBINE.

Precautionary Measures Taken at Detroit, Mich.

Fourteen Savings Depositories Sign an Agreement to Insure Equal Protection to All, and the City Says Notice That They Are Ready to Withdraw the Advantage Of This Movement Stops a Run on a Bank.

DETROIT, Mich., June 14.—For some time there has been an uneasy feeling in the banking atmosphere of this city, occasioned by the numerous failures in savings institutions that have recently occurred throughout the country, especially in the west. Although until Tuesday morning there had not been a decided run on any of the savings banks of Detroit, considerable money has been withdrawn in a quiet way, and to forestall any movement that might result disastrously to them, and as an act of mutual protection, the officers of these institutions met Tuesday night, and adopted the following notice to depositors:

"There has recently been developed in our city an uneasiness among savings depositors which has been (without cause) directed against some of our strongest banks. To stop the needless withdrawal of deposits and the locking up of currency in a time of financial stringency, the undersigned banks respectfully decide, in the event of unusual demands upon them, and to insure equal protection to all their de-positors, to require the notice provided for in the by-laws of the several banks.
We would therefore ask our depositors to review the situation calmly and accept with patience our action, which is taken in our mutual interest and for the benefit of the community at large.

When the doors of the People's Saving bank, one of the largest in Detroit, opened at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning an immense crowd of people looked in with the intention of withdrawing their deposits. They were handed copies of the foregoing circular and inquired that their deposits would be paid in full at the end of the specified time the sixteen banks. This seemed to allay the excitement somewhat.

A DESPERATE DEED

In the Penitentiary—W. J. Elliott, the Murderer, Blinded by Diamond Thief.

COLUMBUS, O., June 14.—W. W. Varney, the Cincinnati diamond thief, was in the state's prison, became involved in a fight with W. J. Elliott, the editor murderer. Tuesday morning, and struck him on the head with a bar of iron and threw him into his cage.

Varney is employed on one of the contracts, and Elliott has a job in the kitchen.
Varney had an old grudge against Elliott, the nature of which is not known, and which he nursed, but said nothing about. They accidentally met while walking across the prison yard.
The physicians say the sight of one of Elliott's eyes is gone and the other can hardly be saved. His face is also badly disfigured and swollen. Those who saw the encounter say only a few words were exchanged.

W. J. Elliott was sent for life, together with his brother Patrick, for the murder of Al G. Osborn, a reporter on the Columbus Sunday World, Elliott being the editor of the Sunday Capital.

There had been a long war between the two sensational sheets, the World then being edited by F. W. Levering.
The war of the pencil culminated in a street duel, in which Osborn was killed in a number of bystanders wounded and an old man named Hughes shot through the brain.

W. W. Varney, the diamond thief, is the man who, with Tiller, the convict who escaped from the Jackson, Mich., pen, did the big pennyweighting job at Jeweler Michie's, in Cincinnati.

The Steaming Fleet.
WASHINGTON, June 14.—Information received here states that the sailing fleet which sailed from Victoria, B. C., this year, will not probably exceed 35 vessels. Last year this fleet numbered 65 vessels in addition to 33 American vessels, making a total last year of over a hundred vessels in the sailing grounds of the Pacific. Of the British vessels that have gone out from Victoria this year, 36 have gone to the coast of Japan and 31 to the old sailing ground in the North Pacific ocean. The number of American vessels engaged in sailing this year is not known here.

Ohio Medical Examiners.
WASHINGTON, June 14.—The announcement that the medical examiners in the forty-three Ohio pension districts have practically been selected has caused a great deal of interest among the candidates, because there are 109 such appointments in the state, and the fight over the places has been litter one. There are eight in Cincinnati, and when Senator Brier returns he will stamp with his approval the names now selected and they will be announced.

Omaha Banks in Trouble.
OMAHA, Neb., June 14.—The American national bank, which failed Monday, caused its downfall. There were heavy runs on all savings banks here Tuesday morning.

PANIC-STRICKEN SWEATERS.

Struck by Fire, Leap to the Street Below—At Least Three Killed.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The story of the burning of the store at 10 and 12 Montgomery street caught fire Tuesday morning, and in the wild rush to the street of the 250 people working there, three were killed and several injured. The firemen are still scouring the different floors of the burned building, and it is probable that their search will result in adding to the death list. Tuesday morning after the fire had been overcome it was impossible to identify any one of the three bodies that lay horribly mangled in the street.

Before the blaze had been fairly placed under control Chief Bonner directed the men to search the building for bodies. Many who were on the spot said that they had seen several men and women fall back into the flames.

The blaze started on the first floor, where Scherlock's people were at work.
The inmates were men, women and children of all ages. It is supposed that the fire started from the store used for heating iron. The store was near the stairway, and in a few seconds the flames shot up as far as the third and fourth floors.

Then the panic followed. The inmates, who were Polish Hebrews and excitable under any circumstances, were maddened. There was no escape from the rear of the building. No fire-escapes were there, and even if they were, they were no way to take advantage of them, for iron shutters closed in, cover all the windows on the rear side. The 250 people rushed to the fire in front and fought there like demons.

The whole front of the building was alive with men and women. All were fighting for good places on the fire-escapes. The women appeared to be more composed than the men, for the latter fought furiously. One would take an attempt to go through the blaze when a door would pull him back. The ladder had not yet been lowered from the first-floor fire-escape by the firemen, and thirty people were huddled together there. Some girls had lowered themselves through the manhole by their hands and dropped the manhole without sustaining any great injury.

COL. AINSWORTH

's Trying to Stop the Ford's Theater Inquest—Omnibus Interference Heard When Col. Ainsworth's War Known.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Another dramatic chapter in the Ford theater savior was added Tuesday morning, when Col. Ainsworth, who came here being mobbed and lynched Monday evening, caused a writ of mandamus to be served on Governor Schaeffer, who is conducting the inquiry on the charge of the disaster, to compel the governor to appear before Chief Justice Ling-gum, of the district court, and show why the prayer of a certain petition of Ainsworth's should not be franked.

The petition, it is understood, demands that Col. Ainsworth be permitted to appear with his attorneys at the inquest, notwithstanding the action of Governor Warner, who came here Monday in requesting that he be also sent.

The petition also sets out the fact that the inquest is being conducted irregularly. This move on the part of Ainsworth has tended to intensify the constantly growing feeling against him.
Some of his best friends admitted Tuesday that this action was precipitated and calculated to raise public feeling against him, which is already at the boiling point.

When the information was circulated throughout the streets and among the angry crowd that sat on the viewing had begun a proceeding in the district court to interfere with the corner's inquest it was immediately construed to mean that he proposed to have the inquest stopped, and such expressions as "We'll have to hang that fellow yet," and "He is putting his head in the lion's mouth," were frequently heard.

New Jersey, will entertain the Infanta order of the court of Spain Mrs. Grubb was made a member of the Ancient Or-Thirty People Injured.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Fifty people lie at their homes at the point of death and twenty-five others are suffering from painful bruises and cuts, resulting from a street car accident, Monday night at the northwest corner of Sagamaw street and Austin avenue.
The break began partly while the car was going down grade and became unmanageable.

mometer registered 95 degrees at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning. The night
